really don't think Treyarch really had the right to release a game that honestly doesn't look like any of their games, from all the videos and first person demos I've seen, the game looks as bad as black vietnam it's pathetic... There is some things I really like about the game though but some other things don't I like the new single player campaign, how it's done isn't much, but it's something to do and it will carry you through the game. I liked the music within the game, some songs are really catchy and unique, but the other songs are really bad and are just there for no reason at all, but other than that all of the music in the game is really good. I like how you can play on the go and that you can use your phone, but you can't save, because you know how to play on the go. Also I like the multiplayer and maps. And I also liked the campaign and multiplayer and the voice acting is amazing in black ops 2. I would really recommend this game even if your not a fan of the call of duty series, it will be fun and addicting, just don't expect the same Black Ops gameplay, it's not like it. One can't always have it all. My god what a ridiculous sequel, everything bad in Black Ops was fixed in Black Ops 2. The campaign is so bad, the AI sucks, the weapons suck, the game barely plays like a Call of Duty game. Sure it has a more storyline, but it's a rip off of Black Ops, the gameplay doesn't change, barely. If you didn't like Black Ops 2 and still wanted the zombies mode, they added another at that is the worst. It's a worthless half game, a joke, a game in name only. I never was a big fan of the Call of Duty series anyway, but I would have been excited to play this game, I'm sorry but it turned out to be nothing more than a disappointment. The good thing about this game is the multiplayer because it's fresh and new. It's not like the first black ops. It's fun and you feel like you're actually in the game. The multiplayer is so cool, the multiplayer is fresh, you think you are always playing a war game, the missions are different and there is a new horde mode for newbies. The story mode is a bunch of nothing. A
